

amber v. newberry

Amber is a wife and mother of 4 sweet babies. Her family resides in the beautiful mountains of southern Colorado where they thoroughly enjoy working and playing hard with amazing family and friends. The Newberry family owns Beautiful & Beloved Boutique, a shop that sells items handcrafted by survivors of human trafficking empowering them to new lives beautifully redeemed.

www.beautifulandbeloved.com

Amber first began speaking in 2014 when she learned that her story of redemption could bring people close to Christ. Since then she has enjoyed speaking to groups throughout Colorado and is following the calling God has placed on her heart to bring her story to the world.

testimonials

"I hear God speak to me more through Amber, than any other speaker I have heard" -Shannin {Bear Valley MOPS}

"Amber's talk has impacted our group greatly, all the girls are much more open with one another." -Alex {teen MOPS leader}

"Amber gave us a great foundation for powerful small group discussions, we loved her!" - Nicole {mom2mom leader}

"Amber's honest testimony touched our hearts, it was obvious God spoke through her" -Andria {cross roads community}

speaking topics

Identity in Christ:: Holy, Righteous, Redeemed that's who God says you are in His Son Jesus. The world says everything else. Testimony of an objectified girl discovering her value and ALL of the things Jesus bought for us on the cross {resourced "victory over darkness" by Neil Anderson}

Forgiveness:: Exploring the weight of unforgiveness and sin in our every day lives through testimony and God's word. There is such freedom to be had when we find the courage to ask forgiveness, give forgiveness and most of all forgive ourselves.

Following Dreams:: Sometimes you have to step into the water for God to give you your miracle. Let's explore the ways that God parted waters throughout the Bible for those who had faith to wade in, and how can we apply that to our lives every day.

Other Topics:: Choosing to Love, Sanctifying Motherhood, & Walking Through Grief.

www.ambervnewberry.com